RELEVANT WORK EXPERIENCE:

May, 1987 - Present: Clinical Psychologist, Clinical & Forensic Psychology, Inc., P.S. Our firm provides forensic and clinical psychological services including individual, conjoint and family psychotherapy; and consultation in developmental disability issues. We specialize in psychological analysis and assessment of individuals in the context of civil, criminal and administrative legal proceedings. These services include criminal responsibility assessment and forensic therapy (e. g., sex-offender treatment), personal injury assessment (e.g., psychological damages in employment litigation): child custody evaluation; and disability assessment. Consultation and expert testimony is provided, as needed, in each of these areas.

January, 1987 - May, 1987: Part-time Lecturer, Department of Education and Liberal Arts, University of Alaska-Juneau.

January, 1986 - February, 1987: Clinical Coordinator, Sex Offender Treatment Program, MEN, Inc., Juneau, Alaska.
Directed State contract received by non-profit organization to provide sex offender treatment to incarcerated and community-based offenders in the State of Alaska Department of Corrections. Duties included developing, implementing, and administering programs; staff supervision and training; consultation with collateral field personnel (probation officers, public defenders, District Attorney, women's shelter staff, etc.); conducting community workshops on issues related to sex offender treatment.

November, 1982 - December, 1985: Staff Psychologist, Waupun Correctional Institution (WCI), Bureau of Clinical Services, State of Wisconsin Division of Corrections. WCI is an 848-bed, maximum-security state prison for adult males. Duties included provision of individual, group, and marital psychotherapy; crisis intervention; staff consultation; administration of psychological evaluations. Specialized functions included Coordinator of sex offender treatment programming; Primary Supervisor of Intern Training; Facilitator of a post-traumatic stress disorder group for Vietnam veterans; and Administrator of group therapy programming.

September, 1983 - December, 1983: Group Facilitator, Alternatives to Aggression treatment program, Family Service, Madison, Wisconsin. Duties involved providing structured therapies to wife-batterers.

September, 1981 - August, 1982: Clinical Psychology Intern, State of Wisconsin Division of Corrections. This APA-approved internship provided supervised experience in individual, marital, and group psychotherapy; staff consultation; and psychological evaluation. The following facilities were used as training sites: Waupun Correctional Institution, Fox Lake Correctional Institution (medium-security prison); Ethan Allen School (juvenile detention center) and Milwaukee-area Community Corrections offices. Specialized in treating sex offenders, violent/aggressive inmates; and in crisis counseling.

February, 1980 - July, 1980: Consultant, Community Broker Police-Social Work Liaison Team. This was a collaborative project between police and social workers to handle domestic disturbance calls. Duties of the Brokers were two-fold: 1) to offer on-the-scene crisis intervention when responding to domestic disturbance calls with police; and 2) to offer follow-up services of mediation and counseling to police-referred cases.

June, 1978 - August, 1981: Instructor of Psychology, University of Pittsburgh (Teaching Fellow). Taught courses in Behavior Modification, Models of Behavior Change, Personality Theory. Lecturer in Abnormal Psychology, Program Evaluation, Women and Psychology, Mental Health Consultation.

September, 1977 - August, 1980: Student Therapist, Clinical Psychology Center, University of Pittsburgh. Supervised therapy and assessment work with outpatient adults and couples.

September, 1977 - June, 1978: Psychology Trainee, Veterans Administration Hospital, Butler, PA. Assessment and therapeutic services provided to a general medical population, both in- and outpatient (e. g., competency evaluations, therapy for chronic pain and anxiety, short-term marital counseling); alcohol therapy group leader.

April, 1977 - August, 1977: Student Trainee, Pittsburgh Child Guidance Center. Offered behavioral treatment to outpatient children and their families; school consultation, playtherapy.

January, 1977 - April, 1977: Student Trainee, Western Psychiatric Institute and Clinic, Resocialization Treatment Center, Pittsburgh. Behavioral assessments and treatment provided to psychiatric inpatients and day hospital patients in both individual and group modalities.
